tRump Fight 2020: Is this the best we have to offer?

If you don't Vote!

We could have made this our Black History Issue, but when your Black 365... you got plenty of time to drop historical nuggets of knowledge! But right now we got other business to tend to..

First, white privilege is a mutha, and know this. It's alive and well! There is no need for a million examples. We all have a couple of family members or friends who have been the subject of our "unJustice" system. But this is some strange actions on behalf of the Making American Great Again folk, that is making 2020 a hard place to live.

I'm starting with this topic because since the last election, among so many things that are not just a blight on our republic but a stain and a strain on daily life. white people all across the country have let the divisive, vile, prejudiced and racist embodiment of SUPER IDIOT, donald tRump. (we treating him with the same respect you gave our 44th President of the United States Barack Obama).

You see when America catches a cold, Black America catches the flu. Under tRump who suffers from chronic oral diarrhea which basically relates to us getting $hit#%d on! So, white people, keep playing, ya'll playing too many games. The orange kool aid you drinking, boldly throwing shade, sneaky lil sly looks & comments. It ain't cool, this ain't even white privilege. It's more like orange fever. So please don't catch a beat down over that fool's rabid ass bull shit! Govern yourself accordingly.

Secondly, all games aside. This is why we gotta vote. We gotta run for office, we gotta support our own. Don't matter if a person of color is running for Chief Dog Catcher of Buttermilk Tx, or Governor of Georgia. YOU MUST VOTE! No excuses, get an ID, get a ride, ride with others!

If you live in Tennessee, then you already know Marsha might have Black in her name but burn is all you gonna get from her. The rest of them orange kool-aid tRump drinking minions will eventually be up for re-election. And even though African Americans only make up about 15% of the population, and even less as a voting block. Vote anyway! Voting blocks make politicians rethink their pandering strategies & could even pad your pockets!

Pay attention, there are stranger thangs making it rain. Urban Revitalization Commission, a non-profit founded by two members of the National Diversity Coalition for tRump, including Cleveland Brown Nosing Pastor Darrell Scott. Have recently been caught throwing cash the same way tRump was throwing paper towels in Puerto Rico after the hurricane. At an event claiming they giving back to the community...compliments of the liar in chief. Bottom line is your vote is for sale! And when something is for sale somebody profits! This system wins if you don't vote! If you vote for tRump we all lose! But I know us. So take the money and run go vote for someone else!

Again, more important issues at hand, like our cover story and how this egotistical misogynistic, racist, ignorant, criminal minded, sociopath, ain't been evicted from 1600 Pennsylvania Ave, with over 16,000 lies, corrupt and dangerously skeptical actions, deeds and thoughts, is there any person with a 5th grade education and above that can support this. Your Senators evidently do! Cause tRump just beat an impeachment trial Impeachment involves High Crimes & Misdemeanors, at the very least, with about 16,000 misdemeanors. I think we got enough to evict him and relocate him to a supermax federal prison!

It's 2020 and just like 20/20 vision, we need to see better, because like I always say,

"If you Knew Better - You'd Do Better!"

Alan S Hill

And the people spoke impeachment! Nobody LIED on him! But tRump lied on everything and everybody on about everything from crowd size at his inauguration to his brain size, and everything in between! To date there have been over 16 THOUSAND lies, falsehoods, or misleading claims!

Donald Trump has made more than 16,000 false or misleading claims since becoming president, according to a fact checking database. The liar in chief surpassed that threshold on 10 December, having ramped up his rate throughout the past year, according to the Washington Post.

tRump had made 15,413 false or misleading claims as of that date, which was his 1,055th day in office. In 2017, he also made around 1,999 such claims, and in 2018 he made 5,689. So, over the past year, he has nearly doubled that rate, and made an average of 32 bald faced lies a day!

He lies about golf,
he lies about
mocking
the disabled,
he lies about
his brain size
just about everything!
He lies to you &
you like it. DAMN!

Remember when he said August 2016 ... "I'm going to be working for you. I'm not going to have time to play golf." Check this out! How many times has tRump played golf as President of the United States? Since taking office on Jan. 20, 2017, he has reportedly been on the grounds of his golf courses or played golf elsewhere 261 times since becoming President, and that's as of Feb. 2, 2020.

The cost of tRump's golf rounds to the American taxpayer varies by round and course, but it has totaled so far in the tens of millions of dollars. In simpler terms...Several analyses have calculated that tRump, as of October 2019, incurred around $109 million in taxpayer spending related to his golf outings, which is close to the amount of money a president would make if he were being paid $400,000 annually for 278.5 years.

Oh but wait since we talking about taxpayer money.....

Check this out!

Taxpayers shelled out another $3.4 million to send President Donald Trump to Florida this weekend so he could host a Super Bowl party for paying guests at his for-profit golf course. And then after Kansas City Chiefs won...he couldn't even get the state right where they play in a congratulations tweet.

His official schedule shows him spending two and a half hours Sunday evening at a “Super Bowl LIV watch party” at Trump International Golf Club in West Palm Beach. Tickets sold for $75 each, but were only available to members of the club — the initiation fee for which reportedly runs about $450,000, with annual dues costing several thousands of dollars more.

Taxpayer money spent at Trump hotels and golf courses flows directly to the president, as he is the sole beneficiary of a trust that now owns his family business. U.S. taxpayers have been the source of more than a few million dollars that have gone to the Trump Organization in the form of hotel rooms, meals and other expenses for Secret Service agents and other government employees who have stayed on-site with Trump in Florida, New Jersey, Scotland and Ireland.

This super bowl trip to Mar-a-Lago was Trump's 28th to the property since becoming president. Saturday's and Sunday's golf outings at the West Palm Beach club brings his total to 79 days there since taking office and 244 total golf days at properties that he owns.

Taxpayers' total tab at time of printing for his golf hobby, $130.4 million!

□ Politician and educator Shirley Chisholm survived three assassination attempts during her campaign for the 1972 U.S. presidential election. She was the first woman to run for the Democratic presidential nomination and in 1968 she was the first African-American woman elected to the U.S. Congress.

"Speak out! Get in the way!
Get in good trouble! And help redeem the soul of America."

- Congressman John Lewis at 55th Anniversary of Selma March

Congressman & Civil Rights Icon John Lewis made a surprise appearance in Selma, Alabama, to commemorate the 55th anniversary of the march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge. On March 7, 1965, Alabama state troopers beat and tear-gassed hundreds of voting-rights demonstrators trying to march from Selma to Montgomery.

Black Market Magazine Publisher shares a memory with Civil Rights Icon, Former Congressman, Ambassador & Mayor of Atlanta, Andrew Young at an event in Las Vegas in 2012. Alan, who did his college internship at city hall was known as the most notorious intern ever! Clearly evident on the look on the Mayors face!

The Presidential Medal of Honor is the United States highest civilian honor.

During Trump's latest State of the Union address he saw fit to bestow the prestigious honor to right wing racist Rush Limbaugh.

The decision appears to be prompted by the commentators recent advanced lung cancer diagnosis. Trump and Limbaugh's brand of identity politics and overwhelming conservatism are aligned with racist rhetoric and misogyny.

For almost three decades Rush has degraded women, made racist comments and attempted to rewrite the history of slavery and the plight of African Americans on his airwaves. He even said that a NFL game "looks like a game between the Bloods and Crips without any weapons". In one instance in 2013 he even stated that "If any race of people should not have guilt about slavery, it's Caucasians".

The Obama's were often a favorite target of Limbaugh whereas he compared the former president to a cartoon monkey and regularly commented on Former First Lady Michelle Obama's body, referring to her as "Moochelle Obama" and the also disrespectful "Michelle, my butt". In 2007, he referred to Obama, whose father was black and mother was white, as a "Half African-American."

My personal favorite is... "slavery built the south, I'm not saying we should bring it back, I'm just saying it had it's merits - for one thing the streets were safer after dark".

Later that year, he called him "Barack the Magic Negro." And during the Obama administration, he said: "The white kids now get beat up with the black kids cheering."

Rush has thousand of hours on air and hundreds of thousands of vile, cruel insensitive quotes that have made him millions on top of millions. All while contributing to the divisiveness invading the country with his hateful and racist platform.

Past recipients have been movers and shakers in a range of fields, including public service, medicine, journalism, entertainment, and business. The impressive list of past honorees includes Steven Spielberg, Muhammad Ali, Angela Merkel, Nancy Reagan, Mother Teresa, Billy Graham, Rosa Parks, and Martin Luther King, Jr. This honor has now officially been forever tarnished.

Is this what the new standard of American excellence? Or could it be that we as a country are so far removed from decency that we can allow Trump to utilize the White House to promote his racist agenda and bring his racist friends along for the ride.

Publishers Note: At one point after hearing of his stage 4 Lung cancer, I felt sympathetic, no one wishes ill on anyone at least not publically. I even felt this clown would have after receiving this well under deserved honor had a moment of humility and humanity. Naw... not him, tore right into a anti gay tirade at his next available moment on air!

Now Rush, because your office does receive copies of Black Market. So I know you will get a chance to read this. I sincerely hope while on air you cough up a lung, you slam your head on the sound board knocking your two front fangs out, fall out your chair and shit your pants as you board your express, one way first class ticket in a kerosene soaked basket to hell!

Here's what we are working with... and in no particular order we will list but skip the particulars like hobbies, schools attended, favorite food books or movies. How will any of the contenders match up head to head with tRump.

1. Joe Biden: A little corny, still biting off Obama's leftovers. No doubt he is a Washington insider, but I don't think he can truly match wits in a verbal street fight with tRump, & he has too many vocal missteps. Kinda reminds me of your Uncle Joe who is just a couple of years late and few drinks too many! Fair fundraiser but really slipping numbers will close this campaign. Regardless of what Facebook sez, Michelle ain't running with him, so I don't think he's winning. Experience is in his corner... time ain't he needs results!

2. Bernie Sanders: with his brothers, Doc Brown from Back to the Future & Curb Your Enthusiasm's Larry David they could really bring a blockbuster show idea, Bernie seems like he could have a meltdown at any moment if a customer service call with his cell phone company if it went 20 seconds too long. He is a seasoned and smart politician but his disdain for real money and the establishment could present an obstacle for mainstream America. Blacks & poor whites on the other hand have no problem with free health care and taxing the top 1%.

3. Elizabeth Warren: This woman more than likely got her feet wet as head hall monitor in the 3rd grade getting folk detention slips like Halloween candy! In later years she was that one in the express lane reminding you the limit is 10 and you have 12! So Step Back Mister! Seriously though, Liz is highly educated, and seems to be somewhat familiar with some everyday issues. minus some organizational issues with her campaign and Black women, I think she could be a solid vice presidential option.

4. Pete Buttigieg: What can u say about a guy who looks like Alfred E Neuman, Nuttin, when you served your country as a Naval Officer, was the mayor in South Bend Indiana, supports abortion rights, and increased funding for HBCU's. We just about over kissing his husband on national television. And he's pimp slapping most of the candidates in this race. If America is ready to accept a first man in the white house, He could pull it off. He's talking the game. Once again Black folk are more concerned and they should be about if he can deliver something to our community. As long as it aint RuPaul!

5. Mike Bloomberg: Big Money Mike! Money so long he got denominations with his face on it! Black America, especially up north, remember "STOP & FRISK, and they ain't really feeling him. But he does have tRump his NYC golfing buddy, rethinking his finances. With an estimated net worth of 60 billion, and virtually unlimited resources, Lil don knows this, and that scares him. Mike claims he's changed, Personally I don't think so. But to become pres he knows he has to make it right with Black & Brown skin. If he can do that and find a lucid, transparent, acceptable running mate... Say Hello to President Bloomberg!

6. and everybody else: Amy Klobachar, Tulsi Gabbard, Tom Steyer, other persons unnamed or TBA.

They really just wasting time and money. tRump is the priority here. You listened to your friends, they liked the idea you could be president, they agreed to the free travel, lunch, per diem, and excitement of being a part of history. But deep down inside they knew better. Now listen to your real friends. Anybody that is suiting up to take out the garbage in the White House has got to be a special person or a special type of crazy. And I'm not seeing anything special just the regular type of crazy!
